About me

Matthias Krivdic joined VHM in May 2024 as an associate in the team of Nikolaus Vavrovsky and Florian Stefan, focussing on International Arbitration.

Matthias has already gained important experience at other renowned commercial law firms as well as in a Tyrolean industrial company. He worked especially in the field of international arbitration and public commercial law. In addition to his bachelor and master studies in business law at the Leopold-Franzens-University of Innsbruck, he also completed a bachelor's degree in Slavonic studies, during which he took part in a programme at the University of Kursk in Russia. Matthias also participated in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial

Arbitration Moot.
