About me

Thais Stemmelin joined VHM in November 2024 as a Foreign Lawyer in the Dispute Resolution team, with a particular focus on international arbitration.

She completed her law studies in France and was admitted to the bar after graduating from the Haute Ecole des Avocats Conseils (HEDAC). Thais has already gained valuable experience in the field of arbitration through numerous internships in various commercial law firms in Germany, in France and in Austria.

Thais is fluent in French, German and English.
